

Follow-ups for Joint Economic Committee - Richard Kaufman

1. To go into force postures at an unclassified level would be an unacceptable risk involving not only sources and methods but the state of the analytical art as well.
2. Request that do to the Director's heavy commitments this spring, ask that any hearings be put off at least until fall. Preparation for this type of briefing takes several months.
3. We are not at variance with the Defense Department on Soviet military posture.
